Staff Copy

An abstract graphic design featuring large, solid black geometric shapes and thin black lines on a light, textured background. The composition includes a large triangle in the upper left, a large square with a triangular cutout in the lower left, and three smaller squares in the upper right. Thin vertical and horizontal lines intersect these shapes, creating a grid-like structure. In the lower right, there are two more squares, one of which is partially enclosed by a thin line. The overall effect is minimalist and architectural.

With sincerest appreciation for the many hours of service rendered to us and our school, we, the graduating class of nineteen hundred and fifty-nine, dedicate our AQUA CLARA to RUSSELL CANTWELL

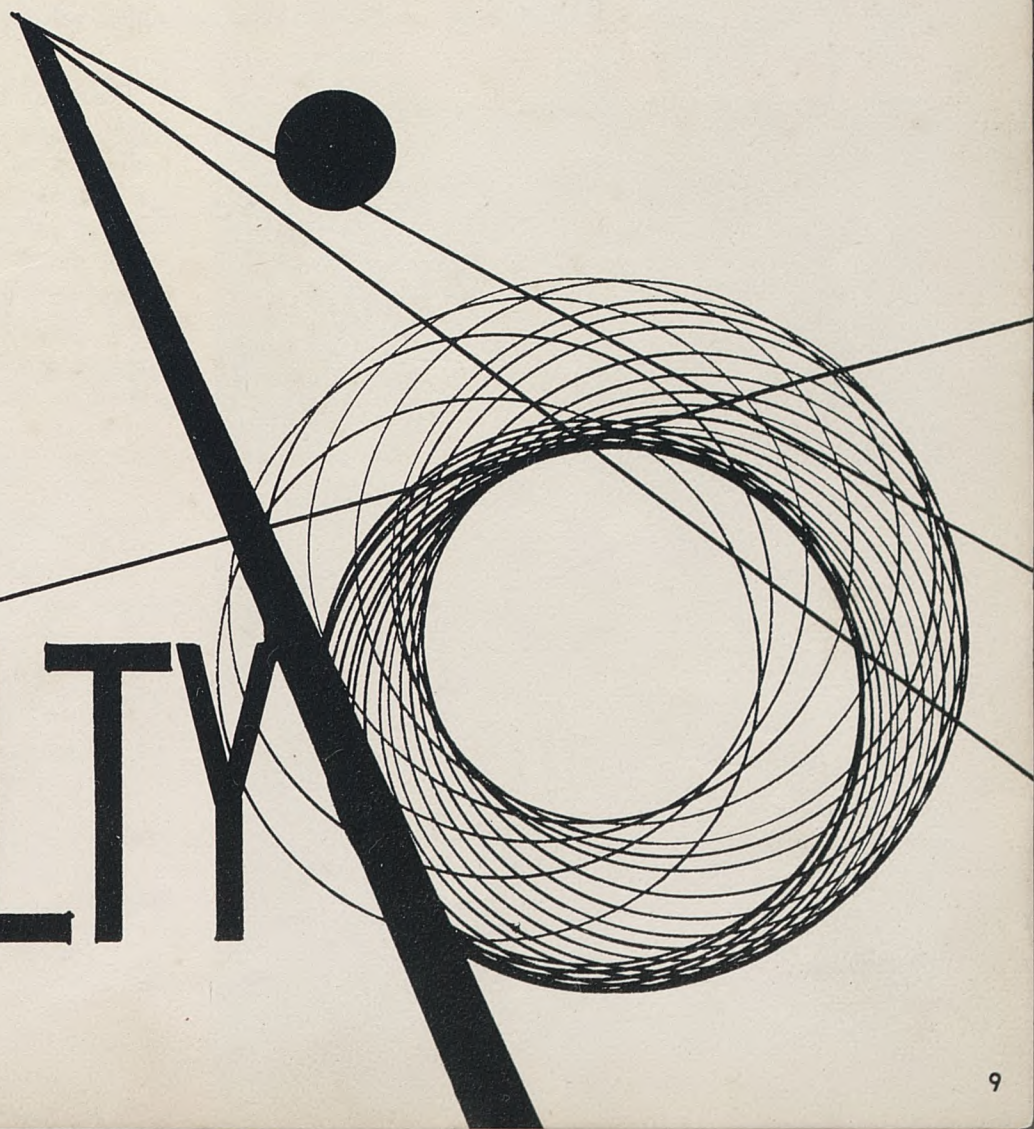

THE ALMA MATER

*The Crimson and the Gray we'll wear,
Aloft the flag we'll raise.
We'll sound our shouts and sing our songs,
For old Clearwater's praise.*

*Then hail to the Crimson and Gray, boys,
The colors we love so well,
Thy loyal sons shall salute thee,
As thy folds on the breezes swell.*

*Then hail to the Crimson and Gray, girls,
Forever and a day,
May the flag of old Clearwater live,
The Crimson and the Gray.*

FACULTY

Dear Students:

This land is your heritage. You must dedicate yourselves anew to making in America a demonstration of a free, just, and unafraid society at work to show all the world that a government of the people and by the people can do more for the people than any other kind of government on earth.

If you are to find rewarding satisfaction in your work, if your life is to be rich and purposeful and crowned with achievement, it is important that you continue to be a growing person. Education is a continuing process. It does not end with the termination of your schooling. Education continues from the beginning to the end of life, and balanced growth throughout life is most important.

You are urged to take advantage of the many opportunities offered you during your formal schooling, now and in later years, to grow intellectually, physically, socially, and spiritually. May you do this in such a manner and to such an extent that you will not have cause to say, "If I had my life to live over again, I would do differently."

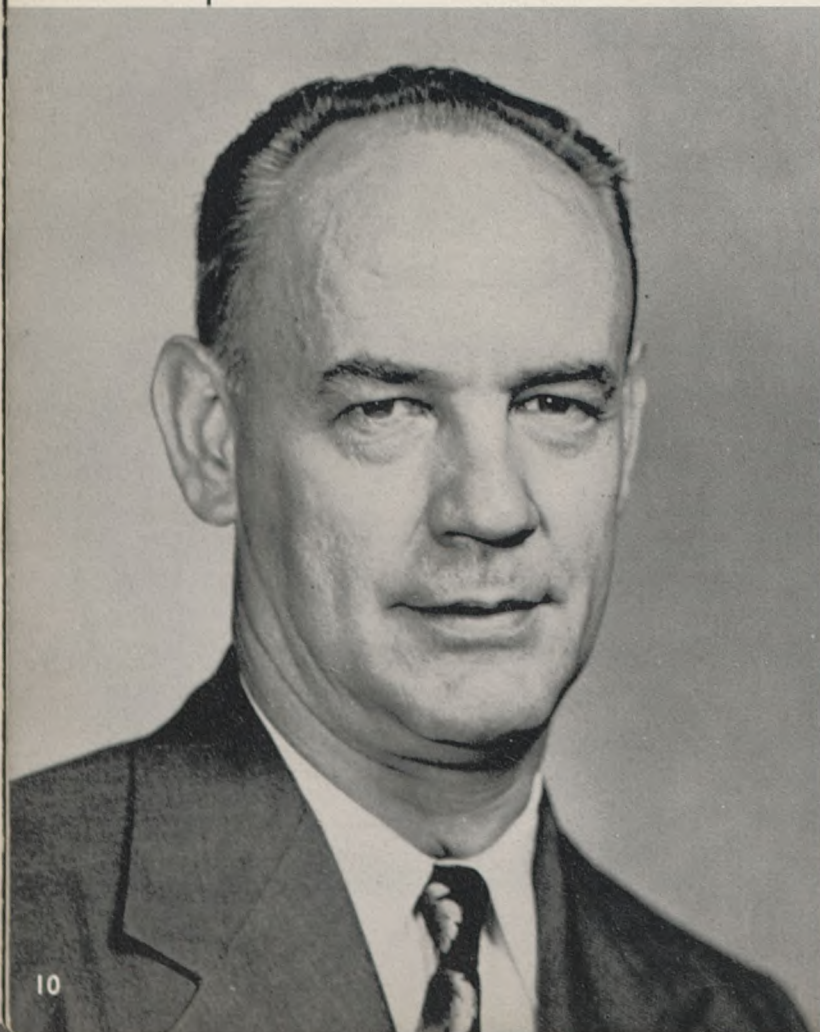

Perhaps the following words of an unknown author will convince you of the value of education:

"Education is a companion which no misfortune can decrease, no crime destroy, no enemy alienate, no despotism enslave; at home a friend, abroad an introduction; in solitude a solace, in society an ornament. It chastens vice, guides virtue, and gives grace and government to genius. Education may cost financial sacrifice and mental pain, but in both money and life values it will repay cost one hundred fold."

Sincerely,

Robert Glenn

Those peppy girls in red and gray seen selling concessions at the football games were the Boosterettes. This active group was sponsored by Miss Henry. The proceeds, gained through hard work and a lot of fun, went to the band.

These peppy little gals sparked the school spirit of all junior varsity football and basketball games.

Sophomore girls tried out for one of the six positions and the class voted for their choice. Miss Ross was their advisor.

GIRLS' CHORUS

Girls' chorus was one of the newer organizations in the school. This talented group of girls participated in assemblies and other musical programs.

MADRIGAL SINGERS

The "modern day minstrels" of C.H.S. patterned their style after the old English madrigal singers of years gone by. The selected singers, under the supervision of Mr. Butler, performed at various concerts and many civic organizations.

"Imagineering"

TODAY, the business world, the arts and sciences, and the professions are seeking young people with "imagineering ability" . . . the ability to combine their imagination with scientific exactness in their work.

Only through education and training can young minds be prepared to meet the challenges of a rapidly-changing world.

More power to you, the "imagineers" of the future!
